IN THE HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Supplemental rules dated 5th October 1933, in supersession of those sanctioned in G. O. No. F. 4597-8—Cts. 59-23-15, dated 1st March 1930, to Civil Rule of Practice No. 153, dated 28th January 1913, as amended from time to time.

English Copyists.

40. English copies granted by the Civil Courts in Bangalore and Mysore, except in the case of Maps, plans, etc., shall be type-written. No one who is not thoroughly conversant with typing shall be appointed as an English Copyist.

41. The number of English Copyists appointed in each of the copying establishments of the courts at Bangalore and Mysore, shall not be greater than will admit under ordinary circumstances of each Typist Copyist earning Rs 30 per month, and the number shall be proportionately reduced if the average earnings fall regularly below this sum.

42. The services of English Copyists whose work is inaccurate or in other respects unsatisfactory should be dispensed with.

43. Copies granted in the Kanarese language shall as hitherto be manuscript, and the number of Kanarese Copyists shall be regulated according to Rule 30.

Copying Sheets.

44. Type written copies shall be made on impressed sheets to be used exclusively for this purpose, and embossed in different colours of the value of three annas (green) and one anna six pies (blue) respectively. The latter denomination of copying sheets shall be used for making extra copies not exceeding three applied for at the same time as the original and made by the Typist Copyist by the carbon process at the same time as the original.

45. The number of words to be typed on each sheet shall not be less than one hundred and fifty.

Apportionment of fees.

46. On each copying sheet of the value of three annas, four pies represent the payment to Government on account of the cost of paper and printing and commission to Stamp Vendors, etc., six pies will go to the Examiner and two annas two pies to the Typist Copyist. On each copying sheet of the value of one anna six pies, similarly four pies represent the payment to Government, two pies to the examiner and one anna to the Copyist.

47. Typist Copyists shall provide at their own cost the Type-writer ribbon, carbon sheets, etc., required for making the copies.

48. Kanarese copies shall as hitherto be made on copying sheets of the value of two annas.

49. These rules shall remain in force tentatively for three years from 1st October 1933.
